

Zoltán Tanács is a Hungarian politician and technology expert who has served as Minister of Science and Technology since May 13, 2026. Before his ministerial appointment, he became a Member of the National Assembly on 9 May 2026, representing Budapest's 1st constituency.

Professionally, Tanács is a leadership and IT consultant and a digitalization specialist with more than 25 years of experience in public administration, information security, and technological development. His career includes work on domestic and international projects across Europe, the Middle East, and Africa.

His professional focus includes: • Innovation policy • Digital transformation • Practical applications of artificial intelligence • Technology-driven public-sector modernization

He is also known as the policy director of the TISZA Party, contributing to strategic planning and program development.

E-mail: miniszter@ttm.gov.hu.